The image shows a registration form for CiteReady. At the top left is the CiteReady logo, which consists of three overlapping geometric shapes in yellow, red, and green. To the right of the logo is the word "CiteReady" in a bold, dark red font. Below the logo and name, there is a link that says "Change email" in red text. The form contains three input fields: "Re-enter Email", "First Name", and a partially visible "Last Name" field. A vertical scrollbar is visible on the right side of the form.

- 5) Registration done. Please check your email and click on the link in the email

The image shows a confirmation message for a successful registration. The text is centered on a white background. It starts with "You have successfully registered an account in CiteReady" in bold black text, with "CiteReady" in red. Below this, it says "An activation email has been sent to" followed by a blue rectangular redaction box. The next line reads "Your account will be activated once you click on the link in the email." This is followed by "Thank You for choosing CiteReady." in a smaller font. At the bottom, there is a note: "* You should receive the activation email within a few minutes. It may be re-directed to your junk mail folder. Please contact randy@citeready.com if you are unable to find the activation email."
